

I need help...

...with my ministry's child protection policy

...understanding a contract

...strengthening my school's employee handbook

When your ministry has legal questions or risk management concerns, we're here to guide you.

Legal AssistSM

Christian ministries face complicated issues and unique risks that can have a lasting impact on the people they serve. That's why we offer Legal Assist, a ministry-focused service that provides access to our in-house team of lawyers and legal professionals. It's FREE and open to all ministries.

Get help with questions like:

A volunteer background check turned up a criminal record. What should we do?

We're going to lease our facilities to an outside group. Can you review the agreement?

Do our bylaws protect our directors, officers, and employees from liability?

Are our supervision procedures for our children's ministry adequate?

What issues do we need to consider before terminating an employee?

Ask a Question. Get a Personal Response.

When you submit a question to the Legal Assist team, you'll receive a personal response. They provide complimentary risk management guidance to your questions about ministry-related legal issues, including facility use, abuse prevention, employment, security, contracts, waivers, governance, and many others. You can request document reviews of bylaws, handbooks, and more. They can also help you get in touch with a local attorney.*

*Important information: Brotherhood Mutual is pleased to provide Legal Assist as a complimentary resource. The services we offer through Legal Assist are intended to provide risk management information to our current and prospective policyholders. The information we provide is intended to be helpful, but it does not constitute legal advice and is not a substitute for the advice from a licensed attorney in your area. Accordingly, no attorney/client relationship is created through this process, and no legal advice will be provided. We strongly encourage you to regularly consult with a local attorney as part of your risk management program. The legal notices and corporate privacy policy on the Brotherhood Mutual website also apply to those using Legal Assist services.
